Glion Institute of Higher Education (GIHE) is a private Swiss Institution active in education in the fields of Hospitality, Tourism, Event, Sport and Entertainment Management.

Ranked by industry hiring managers among the top 3 hospitality management schools in the world for an international career (TNS, global survey, UK, 2007), GIHE offers to its international student body of over 90 nationalities an extensive education that combines craft-based learning with managerial studies and professional internships. This well balanced combination of education and living environment shape students to become leaders and take up the challenges of their future in this vast and fast growing industry.

Location

GIHE is comprised of 2 campuses. Located above the tourist resort of Montreux, Glion campus offers the most breathtaking view of Lake Geneva and the French and Swiss Alps. Its friendly and intimate atmosphere caters to a healthy and modern lifestyle and is the starting point to all undergraduate programs. The second campus is situated in Bulle, in the heart of the famous region of Gruyère. The university style environment of Bulle campus has been conceived for advanced studies.

Accreditation & programs

Accredited at university level by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (USA), GIHE offers a wide range studies from 1 year up to 3 ½ years of studies including Diploma, Associate and Bachelor Degrees, Postgraduate studies as well as a MBA and a Master of Education.

Our career placement office offers an invaluable support to our students by inviting each semester over 40 international hotel chains, hospitality and tourism, sport and leisure companies or organizations to interview and recruit graduating students.
